ARE ALL EYES

DEFECTIVE?

Certain it is that many people experience no trouble with their eyes. Naturally a very large proportion of those who consult opticians or oculists have defective eyes, because the trouble they have leads them to the consultation.

There have been quite a number of people in to see me of late who have nothing at all the matter with their eyes.

If you have any doubt as to the condition of your eyes it will afford you a great deal of satisfaction to know positively. I shall be glad to tell you.

Col W. H. Osborne's Record at the Penitentiary

HE SHOULD BE SUPERINTENDENT

How He has Brought Order Out of Chaos and Made Money Out of Nothing—Look at Facts.

When Col. W. H. Osborne was chosen a director of the penitentiary last winter his friends in Greensboro knew that no mistake had been made. The Telegram made the statement at the time that if the penitentiary could be placed exclusively in the hands of such men of Col. Osborne it would be made to pay its own way. How about the result even in this short time?

Col Bill Day was made superintendent, but the work has largely been turned over to Col. Osborne. A report from the penitentiary just made public shows that some great things have already been achieved, and Day says that to Osborne is due the credit—that it has been his work and that he is the greatest manager in the world.

Without attempting a report in detail we will mention a few things. He found there a contract made by the former management that was losing the state money. He changed it and put it on a basis that will save the sate $15 a day for ten years.

The products of the state farms were being wasted and disposed of in a manner that did not pay the cost of production. Take shucks and cotton, for instance and see what Osborne has had had done. He got together a lot of crippled inmates of the pen, those who could not get about and do heavy work, set them down to tearing up shucks and hacking or shredding them; and the cotton and shucks are now bringing a paying price in the shape of substantial mattresses which find ready sale.

Some of the farm superintendents wanted forty or fifty mules purchased. Col. Osborne saw at a glance that there were mules enough, that all that was lacking was a proper distribution of them among the farms. These and many other acts by which money has been saved have come to light. Some of them look simple enough, but they speak loudly for the honesty and integrity of the man as well as his business sagacity.

Such positions are too often filled by men who do not regard the public interest as demanding the same close care and attention as their own private business. Osborn is an exception and has proven it.

And he is a Greensboro man. He should be made superintendent of the penitentiary and given full swing. If this should be done we'll venture another prediction and that is that in two years the the penitentiary will be a source of revenue to the state instead of an expense.

AT THE NORMAL.

Reception Tendered the New Students of the College Last Night.

The reception tendered the new students of the State Normal and Industrial College, from 8 to 11 o'clock last night, proved to be a most enjoyable event and will long be remembered with much pleasure by every one present.

This reception was given in the main school building under the auspices of the Young Women's Christian Association of the institution for the purpose of welcoming the new students and becoming acquainted with them. It was attended by all the students, all the members of the faculty, several pastors of various churches in this city, and a few invited guests.

According to arrangement the new students assembled in the western part of the building and the old students in the eastern part, and at a signal they began to march single file to the center of the building, where they met and marched two abreast out the front entrance and around the campus, each new student having an old student for a companion, thus showing the cordiality that exists among the student body. You cannot imagine the beauty and impressiveness of a scene like this, when at least four hundred and fifty school girls are in line in front of an institution which has done and is doing so much for the elevation and uplifting of the people of the Old North State. Such a scene would have to be witnessed to be fully appreciated.

After the march the students, followed by the faculty and visitors, returned to the assmbly hall, which was tastily decorated in purple and lilac, the colors of the State Normal Association.

That excellent musical organization, the Gate City Band, occupied the rostrum and furnished the music for the occasion. Greensboro is justly proud of this band, which is excelled by none in the state.

The musical program was divided into two parts, and during the interim Miss Eleanor Watson, of Rowan, who is president of the college Young Women's Christian Association, arose and made a short address. She was followed by President Chas. D. McIver, who introduced the different pastors, each responding with a few well chosen remarks. These talks were full of earnest admonition and good advice to the young ladies. The speakers extended cordial invitations to the students to attend the churches of Greensboro.

Miss Mendenhall's room, Miss Forte's room and the modern language room were converted into reception rooms, each being conveniently arranged and handsomely decorated in college and class colors.

Following the dismissal of the audience in the assembly hall, at 10 o'clock, these rooms and the hallways were filled with merry parties, and the remainder of the evening was spent in social intercourse. Truly the efforts of the members of the association were crowned with abundant success.

One unique feature was that every student had fastened on her bosom a card on which was written her name and native county.

THE PRESIDENT OF INDIANA

State Normal School Replies to an Inquiry as Follows:

Valpariso, Indiana, June 20, '98—M. A. Stull, Bristol, Tennesse. My dear sir:—Yours referring to W. W. Kimball piano received. I take great pleasure in stating that we have been using these instruments for the past ten or fifteen years. During this time we have experimented with various pianos, but have found that for durability, action and tone the Kimball is by far the best. Our pianos are in use from 6:30 in the morning until 6:00 in the evening, and as you know there are not many pianos that will stand such work a very great length of time, especially where tone and action are considered. These pianos have not only stood the test of constant use, but have endured almost twice as long as any other instrument we have ever tried.

We are just now replacing our forty instruments, and while we could have secured others at a lower rate, yet we are putting in all Kimballs. For school purposes as well as all other purposes, I know these will give the best of satisfaction.

I take pleasure in making these statements, simply because the piano is worthy of them. Its use by any school or private individual will more than verify the truth of these statements.

Very Respectfully,
(Signed) H. B. Brown,
President.

Comment on the above is unnecessary. When you are ready for a piano, buy one from first hands with a reputation behind it. Beware of those cheap "thump boxes" sold by scrub dealers.

THE BOER SHARPSHOOTERS

Succeeded in Picking off Beside General Symonds, Thirty English Officers.

By Cable to the TELEGRAM.

London, Oct. 21—British exultation today over the rout, pursuit and slaughter of the Boers in northern Natal hardly knows any bounds, the reports of the entire discomfiture of the enemy being received in a literal sense. It is even expected by the ministry that the Boers will abandon active operations in the east at present and confine all their energies to the capture of Kimberly and Cecil Rhodes. It is confidentially believed by the government that the Transvaal hopes to use Rhodes as a hostage with which to obtain better terms of peace.

WOUNDED BURGHERS.

Cape Town, Oct 21—A dispatch to the South African News from Grahamtown says a man just arrived there from Rand states that three hundred wounded burghers arrived at Johannesburg last Monday.

GEN. SYMONDS' WOUND

London, Oct. 21—It is hoped from the latest reports that Gen. Symond's wound is not mortal. It is expected his command will be entrusted to Sir Archibald Hunter.

BRITISH OFFICERS KILLED.

Glencoe, Oct. 21—The Boers pursued their old tactics, their marksmen making targets of the British officers. Besides Gen. Symonds, the English lost seven officers killed and twenty-three wounded.

BUSINESS DO GROW.

The Immense Railway Traffic at the City of Flowers.

About two years ago the Telegram interviewed a prominent official of the Southern Railway, and was surprised on obtaining from him the figures as to the number of passengers arriving and departing from the station here.

This fact is again the subject of comment, and a Southern Railway man, who is in position to know, said yesterday that more passengers and a larger number of parcels of baggage arrived and departed and changed cars here than at any station between Washington and New Orleans. That knocks Atlanta out.

A conductor on No. 36, fast mail, while walking along the platform a day or two ago, elbowing his way through the immense crowds, was impressed with this thought, and remarked, apparently to himself, but was overheard: "They will all get off at Greensboro in spite of the world."

And so it is. The trains all unload here; but there is always a crowd waiting to get on and they go away loaded.

Greensboro forever! The best town on earth!

WEEKLY TOBACCO REVIEW.

Largest Breaks of the Season This Week.

Throughout the entire week the wagons have been coming in from all sides and from all parts of our territory. Almost every neighborhood in reach of Greensboro has been represented here this week and have expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the prices.

We have had the largest breaks of the season this week, with a very lively market. All our buyers have been out in full force and bidding has been quite spirited all the week. The best prices of the season have been paid for tobacco throughout the week's transactions and as long as prices hold good we may look for tobacco to rush in and keep our tobacconists hustling.

INVITED TO CHARLESTON

But Admiral Dewey Declines the Committee's Invitation.

THE SITUATION IN MARYLAND

Politically--Governor Lowndes' Election Predicted--The Democrats' Listless Campaign.

Special to the TELEGRAM.

Washington, Oct. 21—A distinguished delegation from Charleston, S. C., arrived in the city yesterday morning and took rooms at the Raleigh hotel. The delegation was headed by Mayor J. Edger Smyth, and consisted of, besides the mayor, R. T. McGahan, president of the Charleston chamber of commerce, and Major Henry Schachte, who represents the militia of the city of Charleston, and various German organizations. The object of their visit was to extend an invitation to Admiral George Dewey to visit Charleston when he goes to Atlanta next week. The admiral accorded the delegation a hearing, and cordially received them, extending his thanks and sentiments of appreciation to the people of Charleston. He was compelled, however, to decline the invitation, as he has declined a similar invitation to visit Macon and Savannah. He assured the delegation, however, that he would visit Charleston at the time of his second southern trip, which he contemplates taking early next spring. At the time of that visit the admiral expects to visit many southern cities, including Charleston, Macon and Savannah, and he may be induced to go as far as Jacksonville, Florida.

During his stay in Washington, Admiral Dewey has fine apartments at the Hotel Everett. The Everett is one of the best eqipped and handsomest hotels in Washington. It is located at the corner of H and 18th street, in the most exclusive section of Washington city. The admiral here is enabled to find rest and quiet, which it would be difficult for him to find at most of the Washington hotels. Admiral Dewey expects to leave Washington for Atlanta Monday night. On the occasion of his trip next spring, which will be more extended, he will be accompanied by his lieutenants, Brumley and Caldwell.

Senator Daniel, of Virginia, was at the Riggs House Friday morning, having arrived in the city Thursday night. The senator believes that Senator Martin will be re-elected to the senate, and he does not think that Governor Tyler stands any prospect of election.

Other Virginia people coming here express the same views as does Senator Daniel. They say that Senator's election to succeed himself is practically assured, and that the legislature, when it assembles, will be nearly solid for him. It is believed here by many that before the assembling of the legislature that Governor Tyler will announce his withdrawal from the senatorial race entirely.

Major George A. Armes, of Virginia, was at the Hotel Chamberlin, the other night, surrounded by a group of friends. He has been engaged in sheep raising on a large scale in the state, near the Appomattox Battlefield, and he is much pleased over the prospects of stock raising in the state, as well as in other sections of the south.

A gentleman from Maryland, who was in the city the other day in speaking of the political situation in that state, made the prediction that Governor Lowndes would be re-elected. He stated that the democrats were conducting a listless campaign in the state, although they profess to have great confluence in the election of their nominee, Representative-elect Smith. The gentleman said that Governor Lowndes would receive the solid republican support, and also the bulk of the independents.

O. J. Morris, a well known citizen of Hillsboro, Texas, was in the city the other day. Mr. Morris is of the opinion that Hon. Joe Bailey will be elected to the United Senate to succeed Senator Chilton.

It is the business policy of the Provident Savings to give the assured their insurance at the lowest possible cost to them, instead of building up a monumental surplus, in which they do not participate, but for the possible benefit of those who never contribute to it--The Journal of Commerce, New York City, August 21st, 1899.

ENGLAND MURDERING THE DUTCH FARMERS.

War has at last burst in all its insane fury in South Africa—war in its true sense, war of fire and gore, of tears and agony. There comes the sound of rushing armies, the clash of hostile steel, the groans and shrieks of the wounded and the despairing gasps of men dying in violent pain, far from home and loved ones.

The reports of yesterday's battle at Glencoe, Natal, state that it was another Majuba Hill, with reversed positions. The Boers were defeated, losing eight hundred of their number; two hundred and fifty British warriors fell.

The Boers are a frenzied, pious, undisciplined, praying mob. With all their fearlessness and valor, and determination to succeed or die, their disorganized ranks yield to the charges of the thoroughly equipped and finely disciplined British. They have only one point in their favor—that is solely a moral one: They are struggling for what they believe—and what the Christian world believes—is the right. But history tells us that victory doesn't always rest upon the banners of the just. The God of battle often allows wrong to triumph, and the world knows that the intrepid Dutchmen, struggling for liberty and determined to drive the oppressor from their soil or yield their lives, must fall and that the freedom which they have established for themselves in the African wilderness has a very limited existence.

But there is an all-seeing Eye that observes, and an all-powerful Hand that punishes, the sins of nations as of individuals—and enlightened England must some day expiate her crimes—she must answer for her murder of Transvaal and Orange Free State farmers through greed for the gold mines on their lands.

There is a depth of pathos in the words of F. N. Reitz, the Boer secretary of State:

"I believe in an Almighty God and a God who is just, and unless this British nation repents at the eleventh hour, then shall this vast empire on which the sun never sets go the way of those other empires which preceded it—the Medes, the Persians, the Roman Empire and Napoleon. Why Mr. Chamberlain hates us so I cannot imagine. When Great Britain gets tired of him he will doubtless retire to his orchids in Birmingham, while we poor Boers, with dum-dum bullets in our bodies, will be lying in unhonored graves."

Now comes Swinbourne with a war sonnet. It's entitled "October Ninth Eighteen Ninety-nine." Give him a chance to be heard. The verses are as follows:

Patience, long sick to death, is dead.
Too long
Have sloth and doubt and treason bidden us be
What Cromwell's England was not when the sea to him
Bore witness, given of Blake, how strong
She stood, a commonweal that brooked no wrong.
From foes less vile than men, like wolves set free;
Whose war is waged where none may fight or flee,
With women and with weanlings. Speech and song
Lack utterance now for loathing since we hear
Foul tongues that blacken God's dishonored name
With prayers turned curses and with praises found shame
Defy the truth, whose witness now draws near.
To scourge these dogs, agape with jaws afoam,
Down out of life, strike, England, and strike home.

All honor to J. W. Bailey for breaking up the den of robbers and gamblers who had congregated at the state fair to fleece the people. He takes the position that if the fair cannot live without gambling dens and side shows of the indecent exposure sort, then it should die, and the sooner the better And he is right. Do you remember there was nothing of the kind in Greensboro during our gala week? It was due to the refusal of the board of aldermen to lower the high tax on such things. They should not be licensed at all at any price.

Slugger Jake Kilrain was laid out by a swing in the jaw from Steve O'Donnell's big fist at Baltimore last night. Jake is a brute of the old school and his Sullivanic rushes won't go these scientific times.

The following is from the advertising genius of the Philadelphia Record:

It is practically impossible to guage definitely the money value of good newspaper advertisements, since their influence cannot be reckoned merely by the circulation of the paper in which they may appear. They are universally read, and the information which they furnish is remembered and often disseminated by word of mouth long after the printed medium through which they have reached the public has been thrown aside. It would doubtless be an agreeable surprise to the tradesman if he should be able to discover exactly the number of sales made by his salespeople on any given day through the sole agency of the business announcement which he had published in a widely circulated newspaper a month or so before.

HIS GRACE SUFFICIENT.

The Comfort of the Christian's Faith in the Hour of Darkness.

"And he said unto me, my grace is sufficient for thee." 2 Cor. 12:9.

For two weeks I watched by the bedside of the best friend of my life. From the first, the conviction fastened itself upon me that in a short time there would be in this house a lonely man and motherless child. But I besought the Lord, not thrice, but hourly, that this awful blow might be averted and the fearful calamity depart from me. "Papa," said the little girl, a few minutes before the dear eyes closed forever, "let's go in and pray for mamma once more; maybe God won't let her die. If she does I won't have any one to make my clothes and tell me how to do." But she died. And then He said: "My grace is sufficient for thee." This is enough. What a comfort, the Christian religion, in the hours of darkness. God will see to it that the child will see to it that the child will have instruction. And if her character is modeled after her mother's that will be sufficient also.

The word grace is of mighty import. And to my mind it appears to mean one thing—help. It is very difficult in this world to get on without help, assistance. And so, He speaks to every troubled soul: "My help will be sufficient for thee" If this be the truth, then the distressed among my readers may have "pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecution, in distresses for Christ's sake." The black wave of trouble rolls on and on and it falls to the lot of all men either to meet it or go under. It may be met, by God's grace—help, with courage and firmness. It is necessary for the perfection and polishing of Christian character that you meet with trials and disappointments and broken plans. But "like the sun diffusing the light through clouds, though itself unseen, comes the Holy Spirit to comfort the broken heart." The world in its blindness sees Him not nor hears His voice. But if you are on the Rock, "ye know Him for He dwelleth in you and shall remain with you." The furnace sometimes is hot, hissing hot, seething hot. But God sits as a refiner of silver and gold—and one thing is certain, He does not waste His time on anything but good ore. God doesn't burn rock, limestone, or granite to get silver or gold. This should be consoling to many bleeding hearts. Some are permitted to go through life comfortable and without chastening from the Lord, because unfit to be heroic. No man can be great in God's Kingdom except he meet the issues of life with the conviction that God will help him through. There must be development, and this usually the result of encountering hard knocks. Trials go on for days and weeks and even years; but God's help is always sufficient if you accept it. The rains fall, winds blow with cyclonic fury, waves break against the dykes, and it seems we will be overwhelmed, but God's grace is sufficient if you are as the one who built his house on the rock. "He that heareth these sayings of mine and doeth them," by the help of God, will be able to stand the storm.

"But however it be,
We dare go forth to meet the dim unseen,
Tranquil and patient; God is near and He
Will be our helper as he yet has been,
And let the day be fair or rough
We shall have strength enough."

THE BRIDAL TRAIN.

Regulation Length of That Ceremonial Part of Costume.

October being a favorite month for weddings, it may be of interest to note the regulation length of new models, one which is quite independent of the relative height of different young women. A train adds height and stateliness to the petite woman, but on this account the tallest bride is not willing to relinquish an inch of her skirt. The regulation length from the waist downward must be eighty-five inches, or about two yards and twelve or thirteen inches. It is now usual to arrange the train in a double box pleat at the waist, allowing it to descend and unfold its fullness as it will. Careful attention is given to the lining of the train. One provides plenty of cotton batting, which is carefully split to give the required thickness. This is basted on the back of the satin or silken train, covered with linen lawn.

The lawn and batting extend to within twelve inches of the waist. After the the train is stitched to the skirt the entire skirt is lined with white taffeta silk.

A curious fashion now obtains for calling a trained skirt a "traine," or, rather, for writing the word with a redundant "e" upon the end, as a token that the mode is strictly of Paris. Both English or American train or French "traine" are alike finished with a balayeuse with lace ruffles set inside the hem. The bottom of the train is rounded off.—Philadelphia Record.

HARRIS LITHIA WATER

Is the Strongest Natural Lithia Spring Water On The Market

And has the endorsement of the most noted physicians from all parts of the country as to its superiority over all other waters. Read what some of them have to say for Harris Lithia Water.

Asheville, N. C.

An extended clinical use of the Harris Lithia Water prompts me to the statement that I regard it as one of the best, if not the best, Lithia Water known to the profession. In the condition of Phosphatic Urine, its action is marvelous. Its use in the Rheumatic and Gouty diseases afford me more comfort than either the Buffalo or Londonderry waters.

Very truly yours,
John Hey Williams, M. D.

After a long and varied experience in the use of mineral waters from various sources, both foreign and domestic, I am fully persuaded that the Harris Lithia Water possesses efficacy in the treatment of afflictions of the Kidney and the Bladder unequalled by any other water of which I have made trial.

This opinion is based upon observation of its effects upon my patients for the past three years, during which time I have prescribed it freely and almost uniformly with benefit in the medical maladies above mentioned.

A. N. Talley, M. D.
Columbia, S. C.

Mr. J. T. Harris, Proprietor Harris Lithia Springs,

Dear Sir: While it is contrary to my custom to give testimonials to remedial agencies, I feel free to attest to the efficacy of the Harris Lithia water (when used in large quantities) in the rheumatic and gouty diatheses; in engaged states of the kidneys; in inflammation of the bladder, and in all cases where there is an excess of solids in the urine.

Yours respectfully,
Geo. Howe, M. D.

The waters of the Lithia Springs are odorless, free from color, with a pleasant saliney taste, rather palatable. When taken in considerable quantity, they do not nauseate, purge, or produce any feeling of discomfort. I find from the analysis of the waters, they contain Chloride Sodium, Carb. Potash, Carb. Soda, Carb. Lithia, Carb. Iron and Sulphate Magnesia. These waters act directly upon the mucous coating of the stomach and alimentary canal, they are powertully alterative and tonic. They are everything to inflamed or irritated surfaces. They act upon the blood, changing it from acid to alkaline. In indigestion, catarrh of stomach and gastralgia, supplemented with a proper diet, they are a certain cure. The action upon the kidneys is marked. The sodium, potash, soda, lithia, are the best solvents of uric acid, all calculi of an acid character, whether litary or cystic, are steadily dissolved. I am confident that the profession will find it very useful in cases where this class of water is required.

Walterborboro, S. C.

Read what the noted Dr. Thomas S. Powel has to say for Harris Lithia Water:

Mr. J. T. Harris:

Dear sir—I have found the use of the water from your Lithia Spring in South Carolina so efficacious in the case of a young lady patient of mine who has suffered for years with diabetes, with all its different attendants, that I want to add my testimonial to the many you already have. The patient I refer to has used the water freely at home for scarcely a month now, with more beneficial results than from months spent at the different noted lithia springs in different parts of the United States, besides long continued use of the same waters at home. Other of my patients and friends are now using the same with best results. I cordially recommend it to all suffering from similar diseases.

Very respectfully pours,
Thomas S. Powell, M. D.
Pres. Southern Medical College, Atlanta, Ga.

Read what Prof. Joseph Jones, of Tulane University of New Orleans, has to say in regard to the virtues of Harris Lithia Water.

New Orleans, La.

Gentlemen:—I have used with great benefit, the Harris Lithia water, and regard it with favor, the water being highly charged with lithia.

Respectfully,
Jos. Jones, M. D.

Newberry, S. C.

I have prescribed Harris Lithia water in my practice, and am delighted with it in those cases in which it is indicated. In all those conditions in which there is uric acid in the system, in gouty and rheumatic diathesis, in cystitis and endocervicitis, causing painful micturition, in renal dropsy and dyspepsia, due to torpid liver or constipation, I have found the best results from this mineral water. Indeed, it may be used to advantage in any case in which its formula may suggest itself, especially when lithia is indicated. I recommend it to the public and believe there is no superior lithia water in this country.

Camden, S. C.

Mr. J. T. Harris:

Dear Sir—I enclose you in this letter several pieces of calculi passed by a patient of mine who has been taking the Harris Springs water for the past eighteen months. This gentleman has been a sufferer for two or three years with cystitis, caused from stone. The solvent power of the water has been, I think, clearly demonstrated in this case. All these fragments were passed in two evacuations from his bladder in the past ten days. I consider Harris Spring water a most exceilent remedy in the uraic acid diathesis, also in chronic dyspeptic troubles.

I am, yours respectfully,
A. W. Barret, M. D.

Chester, S. C.

Dear Sir—For the past 8 months I have been using Harris Lithia water with the most excellent results, where I have been able to get my patients to drink a sufficient quantity daily. The carbonated has no equal in gastric disturbances. It is an excellent table water. It is a pleasant laxative, and is a sure cure for flatulent dyspepsia.

S. M. Cavege, M. D.

Baltimore, Md.

J. T. Harris, Esq., Harris Spring, S. C.:

Dear Sir—I have been using Harris Lithia water for some time, and I will say to you that it is my opinion that the Harris Lithia water is by far the best lithia water that I have ever used, and that it has done me a great deal of good, and I think that it is a most valuable remedy.

R. C. Hoffman,
Pres. S. A. L. R. R.

James Reed Injured.

Mr. James Reed struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whiskey in bathing it, but nothing gave it any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week's time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Mr. Reed is one of the leading merchants of Clay Court House, W. Va. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham, of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning" writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought she must soon die from Pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor M. E. Church, South, Point Pleasant, W. Va., contracted a severe cold, which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so-called 'specifics,' usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." For sale by C. E. Holton, Druggist.

SCHLEY SURROUNDED BY GIRLS.

Was the Only Attraction at the Frederick Fair.

Frederick City, Md., Oct. 18—This was Schley day at the Frederick fair. The rear admiral, Mrs Schley and all members of the old Schley family in Frederick county were there.

When the admiral stepped from the train 5000 people met him, and the entire city was decorated. Col. Victor L Baughman, the democratic leader of Western Maryland, had charge of the admiral, who will be his guest. At the fair grounds the admiral was almost carried off his feet by the crowd. Schley was the only attraction.

Farmers who had known him in boyhood shook his hand and recalled the days when they played marbles together, and the country girls flocked about him, much to his discomfort and fear of being made the victim of a Hobson demonstration.

The Man Who Never Stops to Think.

As on our various ways we go
What various types of men we meet!
The gay, the solemn and the slow,
The prompt, the backward and the fleet,
The coarse, the fine, the sour and the sweet,
The men who crowd, the men who shrink,
And—we would have the list complete—
The man who never stops to think.

And first of all we'd have you know
This genial man we love to greet,
Amid the rain, amid the snow,
Amid the cold, amid the heat
He swings along upon the street,
He's never known to dodge or slink;
He is, attractively concrete,
The man who never stops to think.

He is his own unguarded foe,
He is exempt from all deceit;
For him winds unpropitious blow—
It is his business to be beat.
But, if he suffers big defeat,
He never takes to dice or drink.
We much admire, we here repeat,
The man who never stops to think.

ENVOI.

With gladness for his anchor-sheet,
He shuns the pessimistic brink.
May we compassionately treat
The man who never stops to think.

SHERIFF SHOT HIS HEAD OFF.

Weaver Had Beaten the Wife He Won by Advertising.

Petersburg, Va., Oct. 20—Yesterday afternoon Sheriff Gill, of Chesterfield county, killed Lewis Weaver in an attempt to arrest him for wife-beating. The sheriff, armed with a double barrel shot gun and accompanied by two men, went to Weaver's home and found him on the porch armed with a gun and a knife. Weaver struck the sheriff and one of the men with his gun, and the sheriff fired over his head to intimidate him. Just as Weaver was raising his gun to fire the sheriff shot his head off. Weaver is from Michigan and his marriage was the result of a matrimonial advertisement.

OBJECT TO FISKE'S HISTORY.

Virginia Confederates Denounce It as Unfit for Use in Southern Schools.

The Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of Virginia today adopted resolutions unanimously denouncing John Fiske's "History of the United States" as a book unfit to be used in southern schools. The chairman of the history committee in his report says:

"He is an advocate seeking to secure pardon for the wrong doings of his own section by persuading the world of the guilt of ours; by convincing all who read or study his book that in defiance of all reason, because of the wrong of slavery, we argued before the war and fought in it not from conviction of duty or loyalty to our constitutional rights and those of our children; not even from insulted and outraged manhood, but simply to hold the negro in possession."

The report recommended the camp to use the following books as histories: The "Origin of the Late War," by George Lunt, of Boston; the "Campaigns of Stonewall Jackson," by Lieutenant Colonel Henderson; the "Southern States of the American Union," by Dr. J. L. M. Curry, former minister to Spain.

The report calls on all veterans to use their influence to prevent the use use of Fiske's book, both in public and private schools.

WINE OF CARDUI

THE LINK THAT BINDS.

JACKSON, TENN., Nov. 23.
I was subject to miscarriage for three years, and suffered constantly with backache. I wrote to you for advice, and after using three bottles of Wine of Cardui, according to your directions, I am strong and well, and the mother of a fine girl baby.
Mrs. E. N. JOWERS.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

There is no use talking—a baby in the house is the link that binds husband and wife together. Nothing is sadder than fruitless wedlock. The prattling and cooing of the little ones offset a thousand times the occasional worries and trials of life. When a wife is barren, there is a derangement somewhere in the genital organs, caused by one or more of those common disorders known as "female troubles". Wine of Cardui is the remedy. It puts the organs of generation in a strong and healthy condition, fitting the wife for the sacred duty of reproducing her kind. During the period of gestation the entire system of the expectant mother is built up to withstand the ordeal of labor, and when the little one makes its advent it is lusty and strong, well-titted to grow to maturity in perfect health. The mother, too, passes through the trial with little pain and no dread. Wine of Cardui is truly a wonderful medicine for women.

Read their ad and select your coat.
